

CHINA | 8'9"X11'9"

$1,850

This China vintage rug is a stunning hand-carved piece from the 1940s. The Versace-inspired color palette features elegant black and gold tones, making it a perfect fit for a variety of interior design styles.

The intricate hand-carving creates a high-low effect on the surface of the rug, adding depth and texture to the overall look. The craftsmanship is a testament to the skill and artistry of the weavers who created this piece so many years ago.

This vintage rug is in excellent original condition, making it a rare and valuable find for collectors and enthusiasts. Its unique design and elegant color palette make it a standout piece that will elevate any room it is placed in. Whether used as a statement piece or as a complement to other decor, this vintage rug is sure to be a cherished addition to any collection.