The subtle light-raised damask pattern on this India Modern Rug is repeated and faded, giving it a unique texture that enhances any room's decor. The rug features calming grayish colors that blend well with modern interiors, making it a popular choice for contemporary homes. Our team of experienced modern rug designers can customize the rug's size and color to meet your needs. You can explore our collection of modern Indian rugs at our Los Angeles store, where we offer a wide range of designs to suit your style and preferences.
