This Persian vintage Mashhad rug is a masterpiece of traditional rug weaving. The design is inspired by ancient Persian culture and features intricate floral motifs in vibrant pink and blue accents. The rug is finished in Pakistan using high-quality materials and techniques that give it a beautiful sheen and durability.

The Mashhad design is known for its bold colors and intricate patterns, and this rug is no exception. It will bring a touch of elegance and sophistication to any room, whether traditional or modern. The rug has a soft and comfortable feel underfoot, thanks to its high-quality wool.
