Introducing our Kazak Rug, a true masterpiece that carries with it centuries of history and craftsmanship. Dating back to the 18th century, this rug originates from the city of Caucas, Azerbaijan, and is also known as Kuazak or Ghazak in some regions.

Despite the passage of time, all Kazak rugs share a timeless, old-world charm. They are characterized by their dense and tightly knotted structure, a testament to the skill and dedication of the artisans who have passed down this tradition through the ages.

With dimensions of 4.8x5.2, this Kazak rug is a tapestry of history that anchors your space and adds a touch of authenticity to your decor. Its design and structure reflect the heritage of a bygone era, creating a connection to the past that is both captivating and beautiful.

At Rugbank, we take pride in offering you authentic Kazak rugs that capture the essence of tradition and history. Explore our collection and discover the perfect addition to your décor—a rug that not only adds warmth and style but also carries with it the rich tapestry of Kazak's storied past.
