Indulge in the unparalleled beauty of our Unique Handmade Transitional Rug, a work of art meticulously crafted in India. This rug, with its transitional style, vibrant motifs, and gray background, is a testament to the artistry and creativity of our skilled artisans.

The design of this rug is a dense tapestry of big and small motifs, with thin borders that add depth and character. It's a visual delight that tells a story of meticulous craftsmanship and attention to detail.

The color palette of this rug is a masterpiece in itself. While it boasts a plethora of colors, the gray background and low contrast keep the overall look subtle and harmonious. It's a fine balance of vibrancy and sophistication.

Handmade with precision and care, this rug features a high-low texture that adds an extra layer of visual interest. The actual design is raised in silk, creating a luxurious feel underfoot.
